

HOW TO COME TO THE FAIR

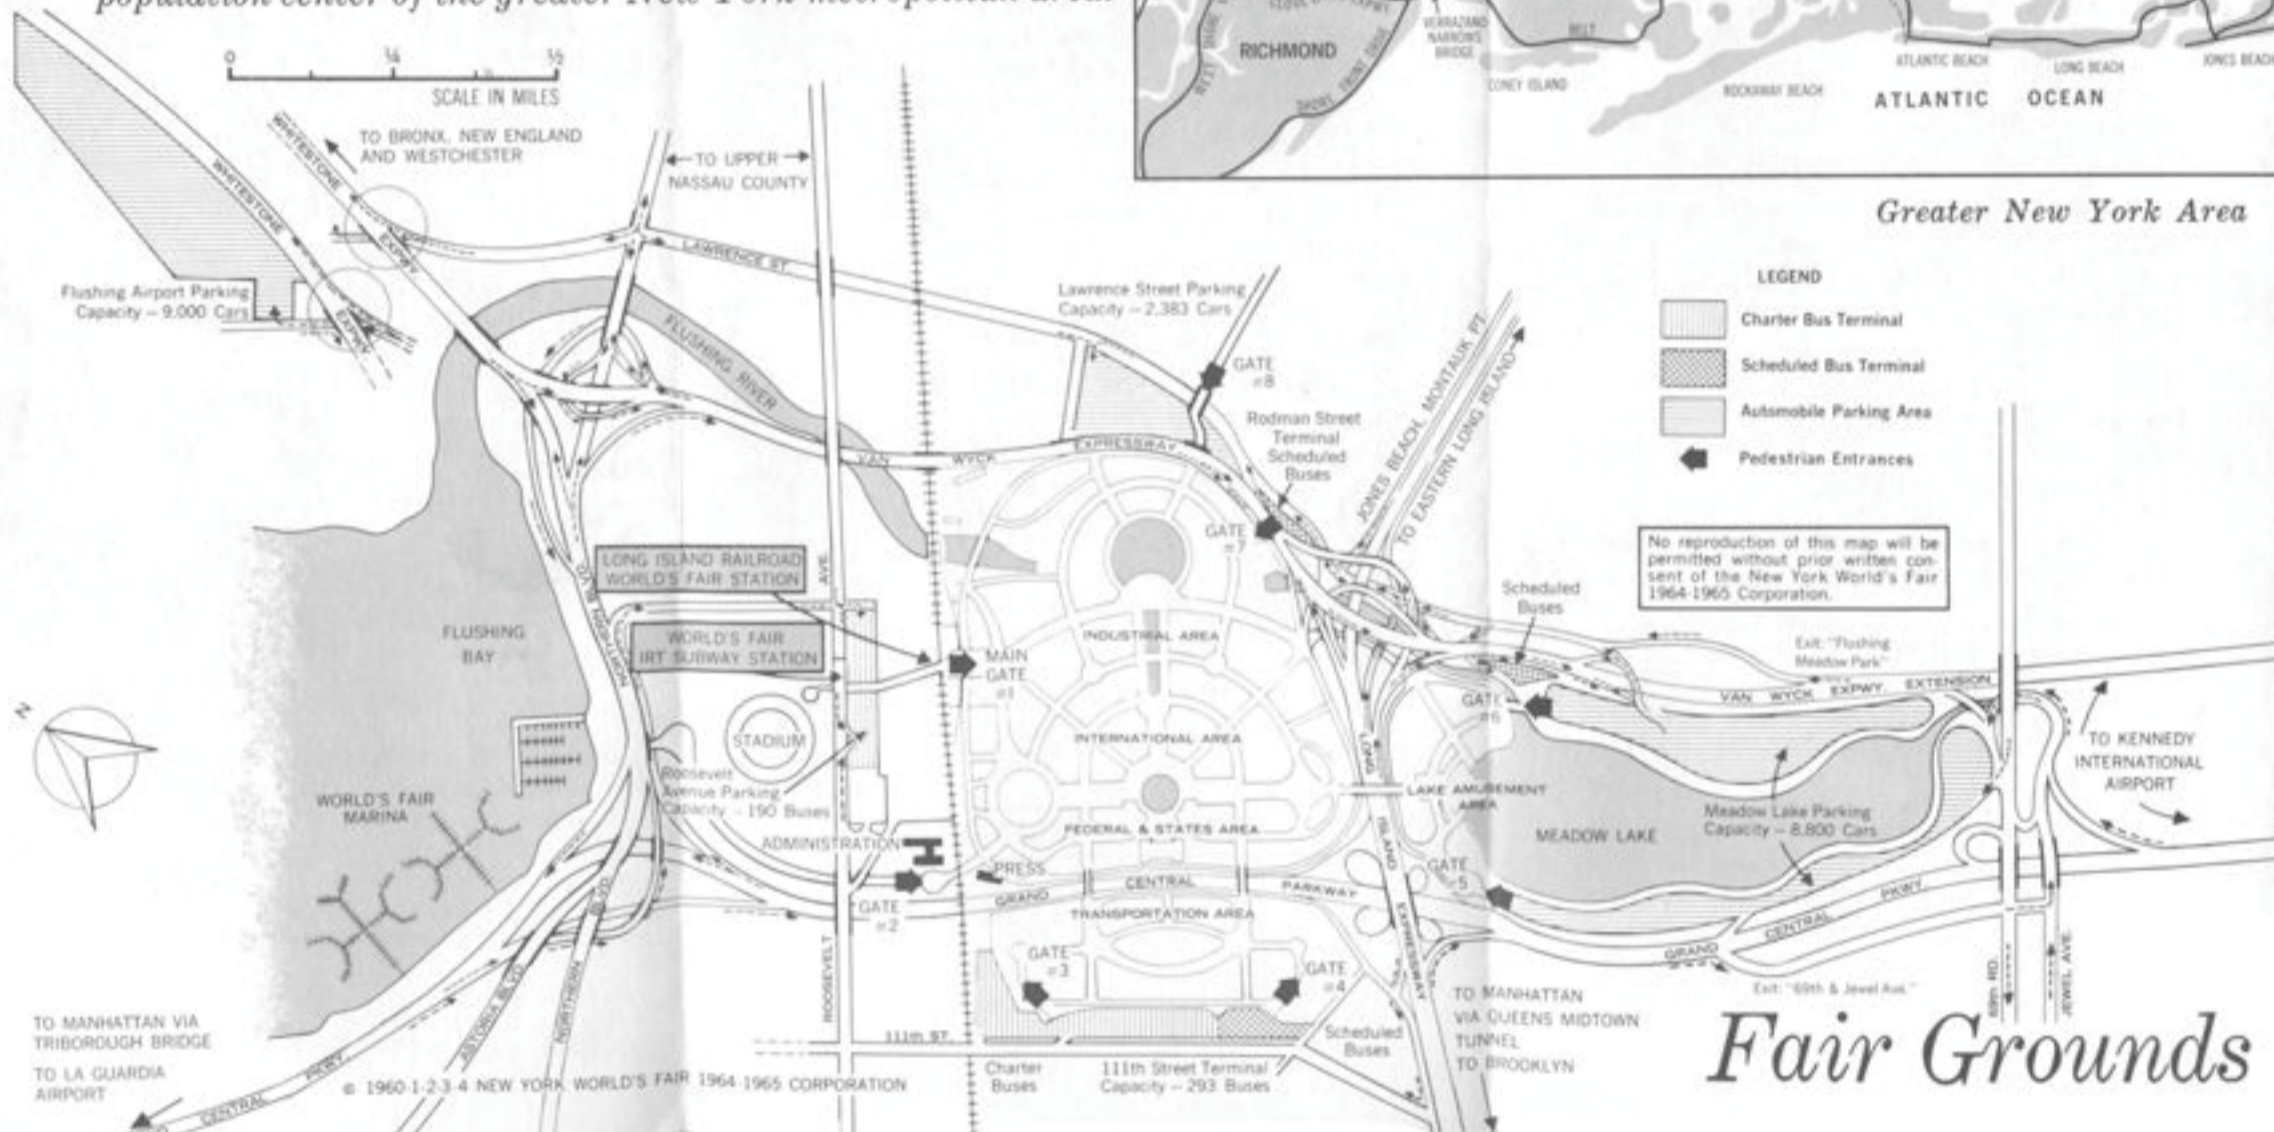

Planes, trains, steamships and other forms of transportation will bring visitors from the four corners of the globe to the New York World's Fair. Many companies have streamlined their equipment and schedules to provide you with fast and convenient passage. This brochure describes some of the ways in which you can come to the Fair.

New York World's Fair 1964 • 1965

The New York World's Fair is located at the geographic and population center of the greater New York metropolitan area.

SUBWAY

By IRT Flushing (Queens) Line from Times Square and Grand Central Stations non-stop to World's Fair-Willets Point. Local trains serve pick-up stations en route. Free transfers from connecting subway lines at Times Square, Grand Central, Queensborough Plaza, Jackson Heights-74th Street. Look for "Blue Arrow" direction signs. Traveling time from Times Square about 20 minutes; cost from any station 15¢ each way. No group or children rates.

RAILROAD

By Long Island Rail Road from Pennsylvania Station, non-stop shuttle trains direct to Fair's Main Gate, 12 minutes, 50¢ each way. Children under five years ride free. Special package for $3.00 includes round-trip train ticket and Fair admission ticket. Special service from eastern Long Island via Woodside Station.

Out-of-town passengers arriving at Grand Central Railroad Station should take IRT Flushing (Queens) Subway to World's Fair Station.

Passengers arriving at Pennsylvania Station should take Long Island Rail Road (see above) or connecting subway to Times Square for IRT Trains. (See subway instructions)

BUS LINES

Gray Line Coaches provide regular service from 6 mid-town locations convenient to major hotel areas. Frequent departures cost $1.00, each way.

Carey Coaches depart every hour from all three Airlines Terminals—$2.00.

La Guardia—50¢, Kennedy—$1.00 and Manhattan Airlines Terminal—$2.00.

New York Bus Tours from George Washington Bridge Bus Terminal depart every hour. Cost $1.00 each way.

Public and private bus companies also provide special services from the major airports and from New Jersey and Long Island areas. Eastern Air Lines operates motor coach service for its passengers between their terminals at La Guardia and Kennedy Airports and their terminal on the Fair grounds.

PRIVATE CARS

A vast highway system with trail-blazer markings throughout Manhattan and the metropolitan area assures fast access by private car to the 4 parking areas of the Fair accommodating over 20,000 cars. Rate of $1.50 per day includes free transportation to nearest entrance gate. Electronically controlled indicators along highways direct visitors to available parking space.

West Meadow Lake Parking Area—Entrance from Grand Central Parkway, using turn-off "69th Road and Jewel Ave." Follow World's Fair parking signs.

East Meadow Lake Parking Area—Entrance from Van Wyck Expressway Extension, using turn-off "Flushing Meadow Park." Follow World's Fair parking signs.

Lawrence Street Parking Area—Entrance from Lawrence Street. On Van Wyck Expressway: Southbound use "Rodman Street" turn-off; Northbound use "Flushing Meadow Park" turn-off. Keep bearing right for Rodman and Lawrence Streets. Follow World's Fair parking signs.

Flushing Airport Parking Area—Entrance from Whitestone Parkway Service Road. Use "20th Avenue" turn-off and follow World's Fair parking signs.

PLEASURE BOATS TO WORLD'S FAIR MARINA

Aquafoils from East-side Manhattan, starting at East River and 25th Street. Frequent trips into the Flushing Bay Marina. Fares $3.50 one-way, $6.00 round-trip from Manhattan. Half fare for children under 12 years.

Private boat owners can tie up in the luxurious, ultra-modern World's Fair Marina. For reservations and details write to Marinas of the Future, Inc., World's Fair Marina, Northern Boulevard at 125th Street, Corona, New York 11368. Shuttle bus to Fair Gate #2 is 15¢.

NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR — WORLD'S FAIR, N. Y. 11380